Prayer for the World Meeting of Families 2022

Heavenly Father, We come before You to praise You and to thank You for the great gift of the family.

We pray to You for all families consecrated by the Sacrament of Matrimony.

May they rediscover each day the grace they have received, and as small domestic Churches, may they know how to witness to Your presence and to the love with which Christ loves the Church.

We pray to You for all families faced with difficulty and suffering caused by illness or circumstances of which only You know. Sustain them and make them aware of the path to holiness upon which You call them, so that they might experience Your infinite mercy and find new ways to grow in love.

We pray to You for children and young people:

may they encounter You and respond joyfully to the vocation You have in mind for them;

We pray for parents and grandparents: may they be aware that they are signs of the fatherhood and motherhood of God in caring for the children who, in body and spirit, You entrust to them; and for the experience of fraternity that the family can give to the world.

Lord, grant that each family might live their specific vocation to holiness in the Church as a call to become missionary disciples, in the service of life and peace, in communion with our priests, religious, and all vocations in the Church.

Bless the World Meeting of Families. Amen.

A People's History

Dún Laoghaire Rathdown County Council, in partnership with the National Folklore Collection at University College Dublin, is carrying out an oral history project in the county,

The People's History of Dún Laoghaire Rathdown.

They are looking to speak with residents (and former residents) of the county area with a view to recording what they know about their families' and their own histories in the area. The results will form part of the National Archive and will help preserve the social history of the parish.

Please contact A People's History at peopleshistory@dlrcoco.ie or 087 1183160.

DCU THEOLOGY SCHOLARSHIPS

Study Theology and World Religions at the postgraduate level at DCU.

The MA programme has been expanded to include a strong comparative and interreligious component: it is an MA in Theology and World Religions.

The programme will go ahead in the coming academic year on campus, as it did last year.

The Theology programme is carried out on the beautiful All Hallows Campus in Drumcondra.

The DCU BA in Theology and Religious Studies is a part-time, flexible programme is designed for mature students, and holds lectures on Thursday evenings and a handful of Saturdays throughout the year.

Classes are small and academic support is provided for all students.

Scholarships are available for new incoming students
