Jesus speaks the words of his Father today with an authority that made a deep impression on his listeners.

His Authority,
His Ability,
and His Affection

Mark 1:21-28 - The Holy One of God

Unclean spirits or 'demons' in Jesus' time offered an explanation for physical or psychological illness but having an 'unclean spirit' was a phrase also used to describe someone who was opposed to that which was considered 'holy'. There is an irony throughout Mark's Gospel in that it is the 'demons' and not the disciples who speak the truth about Jesus: 'I know who you are, the Holy One of God.' While the man in the Gospel today speaks the truth, it is also an example of how it is not enough to know a thing. You can know the truth and still be opposed to it if it doesn't suit your agenda. The real example of faith involves trusting with the heart and responding with action to the truth. The demons are unable to do this. Jesus responds quite bluntly to 'the unclean spirit', literally telling it to 'Shut up' or 'Be muzzled'.

There are many 'demons' in our world that need to be cast out – hatred towards migrants and refugees, racism, war, discrimination of all kinds, greed, inequality, self-centredness. One message from the narrative today is that it is not enough to know a thing, you can know that Jesus is the Holy One of God, but faith is a way of living, not just believing. Jesus is the one who comes to restore and to liberate, he brings healing and frees people from that which tries to overpower them. As we journey through this week, we might ask ourselves what needs healing in ourselves, in our lives? What needs healing in society, in our church today?

'Once brought into the light of mutual love, demons lose their power and quietly leave us.' – Henry Nouwen

Jesus' Story

Fr. Liam Hickey

We get to know Jesus especially by listening to His Love Stories which are about God, God's people and God's world. Before we read a Jesus Story we ask Jesus to help us. We can touch our head, lips and heart. Sometimes we can light a candle. I like to watch to see how Jesus touches people, the little children in his arms, the man with disease, the widow who lost her only son; how He stops and listens, praises those who help the sick, how He enjoys meals and organises people. It is not enough to read words, but to catch THE WORD in the journey of life is a great blessing.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Deuteronomy 18:15-20

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people: 'Your God will raise up for you a prophet like myself, from among yourselves, from your own brothers; to him you must listen. This is what you yourselves asked of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the Assembly "Do not let me hear again" you said "the voice of the Lord my God, nor look any longer on this great fire, or I shall die"; and the Lord said to me, "All they have spoken is well said. I will raise up a prophet like yourself for them from their own brothers; I will put my words into his mouth and he shall tell them all I command him. The man who does not listen to my words that he speaks in my name, shall be held answerable to me for it. But the prophet who presumes to say in my name a thing I have not commanded him to say, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.' "

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS. 94)

R. O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord. [R]
2. Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. [R]
3. O that today you would listen to his voice! 'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your fathers put me to the test; when they tried me, though they saw my work.' [R]

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

I would like to see you free from all worry. An unmarried man can devote himself to the Lord's affairs, all he need worry about is pleasing the Lord; but a married man has to bother about the world's affairs and devote himself to pleasing his wife: he is torn two ways. In the same way an unmarried woman, like a young girl, can devote herself to the Lord's affairs; all she need worry about is being holy in body and spirit. The married woman, on the other hand, has to worry about the world's affairs and devote herself to pleasing her husband. I say this only to help you, not to put a halter round your necks, but simply to make sure that everything is as it should be, and that you give your undivided attention to the Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light; on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 1:21-28

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus and his followers went as far as Capernaum, and as soon as the sabbath came Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach. And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.

In their synagogue just then there was a man possessed by an unclean spirit, and it shouted, 'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' But Jesus said sharply, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!' And the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him. The people were so astonished that they started asking each other what it all meant. 'Here is a teaching that is new' they said 'and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.' And his reputation rapidly spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, All bow for following two lines:
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters, .....
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.
