FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 4th February 2024

Jesus is the healer who gives hope to his people.

The Word of God

Prayer and Care.

Today's gospel captures two important facets of Jesus – as Son of God and, as a man living in the world. As son of God, he continues his mission: preaching, healing, casting out demons – a way of being which we cannot hope to comprehend. In other ways this day in his life is very relatable. He is busy, the day is hectic with constant demands upon his time. We can all relate to that. Even in the cool of the evening after his supper he is still preaching and healing and then to bed. A day lived in the service of others. A day that might feel familiar to any parent of young children or anyone caring for a relative or simply busy at work. An early start the next morning for prayer and even his prayer was interrupted as they were all looking for him.

Two big parts of Jesus' life --- care for those in need, and prayer. We find him at prayer at all the important events of his life - before choosing his apostles, his agony in the garden, his teachings on prayer. It was the centre and motivation of his life, keeping him in daily love with God his Father.

This motivation extended into his care for the sick, a constant in the gospels.

These are two constants in the community of the Church – a community who pray both personally and together; and who care in family, parish, and the world for all who are sick and in need.

Jesus' Story

Fr. Liam Hickey

Jesus was always helping people with His Hands. Peter's mother in law was sick in bed. Jesus takes her by the hand and makes her well. Then, with her hands she makes a nice meal. Our mother and father, used their hands to hold us when we were small, to hug us, and care for us with food and clothes. Jesus tells us that when we help people with our hands, we praise God Our Father, who blesses the world through our hands.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Job 7:1-4.6-7

A reading from the book of Job Job began to speak: Is not man's life on earth nothing more than pressed service, his time no better than hired drudgery? Like the slave, sighing for the shade, or the workman with no thought but his wages, months of delusion I have assigned to me, nothing for my own but nights of grief. Lying in bed I wonder, 'When will it be day?' Risen I think, 'How slowly evening comes!' Restlessly I fret till twilight falls. Swifter than a weaver's shuttle my days have passed, and vanished, leaving no hope behind. Remember that my life is but a breath, and that my eyes will never again see joy.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 146:1-6

R. Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted.

1. Praise the Lord for he is good; sing to our God for he is loving: to him our praise is due. (R)
2. The Lord builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles, he heals the broken - hearted, he binds up all their wounds. He fixes the number of the stars; he calls each one by its name. (R)
3. Our Lord is great and almighty; his wisdom can never be measured. The Lord raises the lowly; he humbles the wicked to the dust. (R)

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 9:16-19.22-23. A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

I do not boast of preaching the gospel, since it is a duty which has been laid on me; I should be punished if I did not preach it! If I had chosen this work myself, I might have been paid for it, but as I have not, it is a responsibility which has been put into my hands. Do you know what my reward is? It is this: in my preaching, to be able to offer the Good News free, and not insist on the rights which the gospel gives me.

So though I am not a slave of any man I have made myself the slave of everyone so as to win as many as I could. For the weak I made myself weak. I made myself all things to all men in order to save some at any cost; and I still do this, for the sake of the gospel, to have a share in its blessings.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! He took our sicknesses away, and carried our diseases for us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 1:29-39

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark On leaving the synagogue, Jesus went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew. Now Simon's mother-in-law had gone to bed with fever, and they told him about her straightaway. He went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to wait on them.

That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils. The whole town came crowding round the door, and he cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another; he also cast out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was.

In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there. Simon and his companions set out in search of him, and when they found him they said, 'Everybody is looking for you.' He answered, 'Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can preach there too, because that is why I came.' And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out devils.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, All bow for following three lines: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters..... May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church
